The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On September 26, 2019, a ruling on entitlement was issued, finding Petitioner entitled to compensation for SIRVA. On December 12, 2019, Respondent filed a proffer on award of compensation (“Proffer”) indicating Petitioner should be awarded $62,065.00 (consisting of $60,000.00 for past and future pain and suffering, and $2,065.00 for unreimbursable expenses). RESPONDENT’S PROFFER ON AWARD OF COMPENSATION

On September 26, 2019, the Court issued a Ruling on Entitlement finding that David Choi (“petitioner”) suffered a left shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”), a Table injury, following receipt of an influenza (“flu”) vaccination administered to him on October 5, 2016. Respondent now Proffers the following regarding the amount of compensation to be awarded.¹

I. Items of Compensation

Based upon the evidence of record, respondent proffers that petitioner should be awarded a total of $62,065.00, consisting of $60,000.00 for his past and future pain and suffering and $2,065.00 for past unreimbursable expenses. This represents all elements of compensation to which petitioner would be entitled under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a).² Petitioner agrees.

¹ The parties have no objection to the proffered award of damages. However, respondent reserves his right to seek review of the Chief Special Master’s decision pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-12(e)(1).

² Should petitioner die prior to entry of judgment, the parties reserve the right to move the Court for appropriate relief. In particular, respondent would oppose any award for future damages.

II. Form of the Award

The parties recommend that the compensation provided to petitioner should be made through a lump sum payment of $62,065.00 in the form of a check payable to petitioner.³

Petitioner agrees.
